The namesake Foreign	American-born Gogol, the son of Indian immigrants, wants to fit in among his fellow New Yorkers, despite his family's unwillingness to let go of their traditional ways.
The King and I Classic	After the death of her husband, Anna Owens moves from England to Siam with her son Louis to become a teacher for the children of the king of Siam. She finds Siamese customs to be quite different from English ones, which brings her often in conflict with the king. However, after some time they find themselves getting along much better.
The Road Adventure	The world is in ruins after some apocalyptic event. A father and his son are walking towards the coast in an attempt to head south to escape the increasingly cold, endless winter.
Precious Drama	In Harlem, an overweight, illiterate teen who is pregnant with her second child is invited to enroll in an alternative school in hopes that her life can head in a new direction
Cheaper by the Dozen Family	With his wife doing a book tour, a father of twelve must handle a new job and his unstable brood.
For Your Eyes Only Action	Agent 007 is assigned to hunt for a lost British encryption device and prevent it from falling into enemy hands.
